

DMSG Scientific Symposium

Minimal Residual Disease Analysis in Multiple Myeloma

- Why, When, How

Wednesday 26 October 2016, 1pm-6pm

First Hotel Grand, Jernbanegade 18, 5000 Odense C.

Program

13.00-14.00 Arrival and Lunch

14.00-14.05 Welcome. Niels Abildgaard, chairman, DMSG

14.05-15.00 Updated IMWG response criteria – inclusion of MRD measurements in studies and clinical practice; the US approach. Professor Rafat Abonour, Indiana University Medical Clinic, Indianapolis, USA

15.00-15.30 The Nordic Experience – MRD analysis by flowcytometry. Professor Hans Erik Johnsen, Department Hematology, Aalborg University Hospital

15.30-15.50 Coffee

15.50-16.20 New molecular techniques in myeloma – Next Generation Sequencing for clinical hematologists. Professor Charlotte Guldborg Nyvold, Department Hematology, Odense University Hospital

16.20-16.50 New imaging techniques in myeloma – FDG PET/CT. Consultant Anne Lerberg Nielsen, Department of Nuclear Medicine, Odense University Hospital

16.50-17.00 Break

17.00-17.40 DMSG Young Investigator Award 2015: MD, PhD Maja Hinge.

- Introduction and Award: Niels Abildgaard

- Lecture by Maja Hinge, Vejle Hospital: “The bone disease in multiple myeloma – clinical and biological aspects”

17.40-18.00 Questions and summing up.

This symposium is sponsored by

