

Curriculum Vitae

Anne Illemann Christensen
Statens Institut for Folkesundhed
Folkesundhed i Danmark
E-mail: ach@sdu.dk
Telefon: +4565507773

Education

2015 PhD, SDU
2007 MSc in Public Health, University of Copenhagen
2004 BSc in Public Health, SDU

Employment

2018- Head of Research, National Institute of Public Health, SDU
2017- Senior Researcher, National Institute of Public Health, SDU
2015-2017 Researcher, National Institute of Public Health, SDU
2010-2015 PhD-student, National Institute of Public Health, SDU
2007-2010 Research Assistant, National Institute of Public Health, SDU

Research focus, activities, and experience

Research field: Mental health, survey methodology and register-based research.

Leadership: Head of a research department at the National Institute of Public Health, SDU. The research department consist of approximately 45 researchers organized into five research groups. The department conducts interventions, register-based research, and population surveys. Anne is responsible for the strategic, administrative and research leadership and development of the department.

Project management: Project management of several large research projects regarding mental health and population health surveys.

Supervision/teaching: Teaching experience at both graduate and postgraduate level, external examiner at graduate level, and responsible for courses at graduate level. Supervisor of two phd. Students.

Outreach activities: Multiple oral presentations in non-scientific forums, publication of multiple Danish-speaking reports and collaboration with the National Board of Health and Ministry of Health on several research projects.

Peer review: European Journal of Public Health, Scandinavian Journal of Public Health, Health and Quality of Life Outcomes, Addiction, European Journal of Cancer Care, BMC research methodology, BMC OPEN.

Other scientific activities: Member of several advisory boards e.g., the Danish Society of Public Health, the Danish Society of Survey Research and the European Health Interview Survey Network.

Funding

Grants from the Novo Nordisk foundation, TrygFonden, National Board of Health, The Danish regions, the Danish Patients' Association and other research funds.

Overview of scientific contributions

- 48 publications in international peer-reviewed journals (first author: 13, last author: 8)
- 3 book chapters (first author: 2, last author: 1)
- 97 research reports (first author: 21, last author: 24)