

Charlotte Gotthard Mørtz
Klinisk Institut
KI, OUH, Forskningsenhed for Dermatovenerologi og allergi (Odense)
E-mail: mortz@health.sdu.dk

Undervisnings CV

Formal educational training:

Supervisor course, "Den Lægelige Videreuddannelse", Region Southern Denmark

Medical Leadership "Lægefaglig ledelse og ledelsesintensitet", CBS

Research leader course, CBS

Administrative tasks relating to education:

Post training committee, Danish Society for Dermatology (2005-2007).

Course leader for two dermatological specialist courses: The itching patient (2011-) and contact dermatitis and occupational dermatology (2012-2020).

Course leader on a postgraduate specialist course for dermatologist; Allergic Contact Dermatitis (2012).

Involved in the development of the education programme for the speciality Allergology in Denmark (2013-14).

Course leader on a postgraduate specialist course in Allergology - drug allergy (2019)

Working group in Danish Society for Dermatology on revision of specialist courses in Dermatology (2019-2020).

Organization of training in EAACI SAC (skin allergy club) for young dermatologists.

From January 2021 responsible for the pre-graduate study program at the Department of Dermatology and Allergy Center.

Experience concerning study programs, supervision and examinations:

Pre-graduate:

Clinical teacher at University of Southern Denmark (2008-2011), assoc. professor, University of Southern Denmark (2011-2016) and from 2016 clinical professor, University of Southern Denmark.

Teaching at the Medical faculty from 2008; module K8 (Paediatric), K12 (Dermatology) and K14 (Acute medicine). From 2021 on K9. From 2021 responsible for the teaching in dermatology and allergology at SDU. Teaching in allergy at Science in Public Health, University of Southern Denmark since 2018.

Prepared OSCE examinations for K8 and K14. One written OSCE on K8 in atopic dermatitis and one written on K14 in atopic dermatitis and one oral examination on K14. MCQ on K12 and since 2021 on K9, together with question hour before the examination and exam review with the students after the examination. Examination in Science in Public Health, University of Southern Denmark (written).

Supervisor for 14 Master Thesis. Supervisor for 3 research year students.

Post-graduate:

Teaching on several specialist courses in Dermatology and in Pediatric Allergology since 2011.

Teaching in specialist course for general medicine 2014-2018.

13 Ph.D.-students (primary supervisor for 4) (2022).

Assessor in 10 PhD thesis (2022).

Organization of and teaching in the EAACI SAC (skin allergy club) for young dermatologists at two meetings in Zurich (2018, 2019).

Teaching of patients:

Responsible for the atopic dermatitis patient school at Department of Dermatology and Allergy Center, Odense University Hospital (from 2007) and teaching patients at the atopic dermatitis patient school since 2002.

Teaching at atopic dermatitis schools in Denmark for The Asthma and Allergy association, Denmark (patient association) (2007-2017).

Method, materials and tools

Teaching in lecture, group sessions, patient cases (photos), interactive sessions and patient demonstrations (practically) and individual supervision of medical students and Ph.D.

Production of teaching material in power point including for use in E-learn.

MCQ and OSCE tasks. Oral examination of medical student and Ph.D. in their thesis. Oral examination.

Educational development and applied research in university teaching, including educational awards:

Teaching since 2008 with a development of my university teaching, and in increasing supervision of medical students and MD in different research field.

Reflection on own teaching practice and future development, including student evaluations

Engaged teaching, positive feedback and evaluations from the students and colleagues. In the future, I will participate in educational courses on teaching and educational methods at the university.