

Knud Sinding
Institut for Sociologi, Miljø- og Erhvervsøkonomi
Markets, Organization and Behavior (MOB) Research Group

Postadresse:
Niels Bohrs Vej 9
6700
Esbjerg
Danmark
E-mail: ksi@sam.sdu.dk
Telefon: 65504207

CV

PERSONAL DETAILS

Born 1961, divorced, two children.

FORMAL EDUCATION

1994. PhD., University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada. Thesis title: Mineral development and mining policy in Greenland.

1991. Graduate diploma, Mining engineering, McGill University, Montreal. Concentration: Mineral economics;

1988. B.Comm. (HD), International trade and management, Copenhagen Business School.

1988. MSc, Copenhagen University (Major field: Economic geology; Minor fields: geochemistry and project evaluation).

APPOINTMENTS

2001-present. Associate Professor, Dept. of Environmental and Business Economics, University of Southern Denmark, Esbjerg.

2000-Present. Principal Research Fellow, Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy, University of Dundee, Scotland.

2000-01. Lecturer, Dept. of Environmental and Business Economics, University of Southern Denmark, Esbjerg.

1996-2000. Assistant Professor, Dept. of Organization and Management, Aarhus School of Business.

1996-97. Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Petroleum, Energy & Mineral Law & Policy, University of Dundee.

1994-97. Senior Research Fellow, Dept. of Economics, Copenhagen Business School. Project leader for a research project on licensing of oil and gas lands, funded by the Danish Ministry of Energy.

1994-96. Marie Curie Fellow, Dept. of Earth Resources Engineering, Royal School of Mines, Imperial College of Science, Technology and Medicine, London.

1989-93. Research Fellow, Institute of Economics, Copenhagen Business School.

ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES

2007-11: Program Director, B.Comm. (HD) in Organisation and management, University of Southern Denmark

2004-05: Director of Business Programmes, University of Southern Denmark.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE (SUMMARY)

2007-present. Corporate Strategy in the extractive industries. University of Dundee MBA (Oil, Gas & Minerals) program.

2000- present. Management and organization theory, Business strategy, Corporate Social Responsibility, Law and Economics, Dept. of Environmental and Business Economics, University of Southern Denmark, Esbjerg.

1996-2000. Organization theory, strategy and environmental management, Dept. of Organization and Management, Aarhus School of Business.

1996-97. Project evaluation and Mining law, Centre for Petroleum, Energy & Mineral Law & Policy, University of Dundee.

1993-94. Environmental economics and management, Department of Economics, Copenhagen Business School.

1991-93. Teaching assistant in Engineering economics, Dept. of Mining and Mineral Process Mineral Engineering, University of British Columbia.

PROJECTS & GRANTS

1989- 93. Non-renewable resource policy in Greenland. Grants from Copenhagen Business School and the Danish Social Science Research Council.

1994-97. Off-shore licensing systems and mechanisms. Energy Research Program grant, Danish Ministry of Environment and Energy.

1999-2000. EMAS Eastwards, funded by the EU ENRICH Phase II program.

2001-2004. Life Cycle assessments and Business Practice, funded by the Social Science Research Council of Denmark.

REFERENCES

Professor Mark Sharfman

Michael F. Price College of Business Administration
University of Oklahoma
307 West Brooks
Norman, Oklahoma 73019-4006
USA
Professor Erik R. Larsen
Institute of Management
Università della Svizzera italiana (USI)
Via Giuseppe Buffi 13
CH-6900 Lugano
Switzerland