

Education

Education

2007-2009

MSc. Anthropology, Copenhagen University

Master thesis: A Sense of Future: An Emotive Study of Love and Relationships in Melbourne

One semester exchange, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia

Research projects:

On the virtual world Second Life:

The Place of Cyberspace: an exploration of the terra incognita of Second Life

On the Quakers of the Northern Suburbs of Melbourne:

Nuances of Sacredness: Silence and Narrative - a journey into a metaphysical intersubjective.

2003-2007

BA Anthropology, Copenhagen University

Bachelor thesis: konrolfreak.blogspot.com: a study of narratives about self and control on a personal web-log

Research project:

On the 'paradigm shift' of a large air-condition factory in Denmark

Between ideal and practice: regarding a fieldwork in a corporate company

Additional professional training and commendations

2010

Teaching pedagogic, by The Teaching and Learning Unit of the Social Sciences at Copenhagen University

2009

Teaching in tutorials, Deakin University's The Fundamentals of Teaching and Learning program, Deakin University, Australia

2008

Awarded the Dean's Sessional Teaching Commendation, Faculty of Arts, Monash University, Australia.

Conferences and seminar presentations

June 2013

Consumer Culture Theory Conference 2013: Building Community Across Borders.

Special Session 2: The Self as Laboratory.

Transformative Relations: horses, managers and leaders

Nov 2009:

Deakin University, School of History Heritage and Society Seminar Series, Trimester 2:

Accessing and representing emotions: Filming as ethnography, as methodology. Preliminary methodological reflections on the research project: Love & marriage in contemporary Australia: a documentary exploration of the relationship between emotions, actions and 'marital stages'

May 2009:

Monash University, School for Political & Social Inquiry, Anthropology, Monash Anthropology Seminar Series, Semester 1:

"A sense of future": an emotive study of love and relationships in Melbourne

Employment

November 2012

Hestenge – Horse assisted learning and therapy

Consultant:

Business strategies, strengths and weaknesses

Sales material

April 2012:

ISAR – Leadership with horses

Consultant:

Business strategies, strengths and weaknesses

Video documentation for clients

May-June 2012:

Copenhagen University, Department of Anthropology

Re-designing:

Kvalitative & Kvantitative Metoder (Autumn 2011)

Feb 2009-Feb 2012:

Copenhagen University, Department of Anthropology

Teacher, content developer and course coordinator of:

Kvalitative & Kvantitative Metoder (Autumn 2011)

Kvalitative Metoder (Spring 2011)

An Introduction to Anthropology (Spring semester 2010, Autumn semester 2010, Spring semester 2011 and Autumn semester 2011)

Anthropology: Methodology and Analysis (Autumn semester 2010, Spring semester 2011 and Autumn semester 2011)

Anthropology and People-Centred Business II: Theory and Translation (Autumn 2010)

Organiser and facilitator of :

APCB Employers' Seminar II: Market Creation

A seminar where students present their work to a panel of both academics with an interest in the field as well as representatives from the business world.

Supervisor of:

Three APCB MA students 2010-2011

Coordinator and assessor of:

Anthropological Perspectives: Danish Culture and Society (Autumn 2010)

March-July 2010:

Synovate, global market research firm

Freelance Executive Researcher

On three national research projects, one for a major food company, one for a smaller retail company and one for a major public organisation. And on one international research project for a large medical company

Aug-Dec 2009:

Monash University, School for Political and Social Inquiry, Anthropology

Designer of and researcher on:

Aspirations and motivations: a study of the INT/Anthropology student cohort, in conjunction with Penny Graham & Matt Tomlinson

The meaning & significance of 'Interdisciplinarity': faculty discourse & academic literature, in conjunction with Penny Graham & Alan Petersen

Aug-Dec 2009:

Deakin University, School of History Heritage and Society, Anthropology

Researcher on Love & marriage in contemporary Australia: a documentary exploration of the relationship between emotions, actions and 'marital stages', a project aimed at creating a documentary film, in conjunction with Karen Lane and Tanya King

Assessor of coursework done by students undertaking ASS228: Australian people: Anthropological perspectives, for Tanya King

Feb-June 2009:

Deakin University, School of History Heritage and Society, Anthropology

Tutor, ASS101 Anthropology A1: Culture and Imagination

Feb-June 2009:

Monash University, School for Political and Social Inquiry, Anthropology

Tutor, INT2050/3050 Mobile Worlds: Migrants, Refugees and the Politics of Belonging

Juli-Dec 2008:

Monash University, Centre for Australian Indigenous Studies

Tutor, AIS1020 Aborigines and White Australia: Complex Colonial Encounters

Workshop series moderator and lecturer for International students.

Jan 2008-Jan 2009:

Research International

Freelance writer for online magazine notesbloggen

June 2006-Dec 2007:

Research International

Project assistant:

Qualitative Interviewer and researcher

Assistant at focus group interviews

Writing reports and presenting findings

Publications2013

Book review: Esther Oluffa Pedersen og Anne-Marie S. Christensen (red.) Mennesket - en introduktion til filosofisk antropologi. Århus: Viasystem 2012. In: Tidsskriftet Antropologi 67/8

2007

"Portræt af en blogger" In: Information. July 25th. 2007: <http://www.information.dk/140301>