

Biografi:

Ph.d. i historie og ph.d. i nordisk sprog- og kulturvidenskab fra University of Minnesota samt dr.jur. fra Universität Wien. Underviste derefter ved University of Minnesota, University of Wisconsin og St. Olaf College. Lektor i nyere europæisk og amerikansk historie ved SDU siden 2000.

Forskningsfelt:

Nationale, etniske og religiøse identiteter med særlig vægt på Europa og USA
Komparativ og transnational historie

Undervisningsområder:

- Moderne europæisk og amerikansk historie
- Globalhistorie
- Komparativ historie
- Historisk metode

Vigtigste publikationer:

The Ambivalence of Identity: The Austrian Experience of Nation-Building in a Modern Society. West Lafayette: Purdue University Press, 2001.

Of Mind and Matter: The Duality of National Identity in the German-Danish Borderlands. West Lafayette: Purdue University Press, 2009.

Protestant Resistance in Counterreformation Austria. New York: Routledge, 2020.

Grænsetilfælde: Nationale og etniske identiteter i konflikt og overgang. Odense: Syddansk Universitetsforlag, 2004.

Von Kärnten nach Schweden: Die evangelischen Glaubensflüchtlinge der Familien Khevenhüller und Paul. Klagenfurt: Verlag des Kärntner Landesarchivs, 2010.

Norwegian Minds – American Dreams: Ethnic Activism among Norwegian-American Intellectuals. Newark and London: University of Delaware Press, 1998.

"Peasants and Swedes: The Making of a Habsburg Nightmare in Early Modern Austria." Social History 42:2 (2017): 205-232.

"Conservative Revolutionary: Georg Erasmus von Tschernembl and the Ideology of Resistance in Early Modern Austria." History of European Ideas 41:4 (2015): 544-564.

"The Discourse of National Legitimization: A Comparative Examination of Southern Jutland and the Slovenian Language Area." Nationalities Papers 40:1 (2012): 1-22.

"A Tale of Three Communities: National Identification in the German-Danish Borderlands." Scandinavian Journal of History 32:2 (2007): 141-166.

"Fluid Identities in Central European Borderlands." European History Quarterly 31:4 (2001): 518-48.

"National History – National Imagery: The Role of History in Postwar Austrian Nation-Building." Central European History 32:3 (1999): 277-309.